\ If additional pieces are to be displayed, please write the title(s), description(s), and media used on the back of this form.*

I acknowledge that Riverview Church and anyone employed by, volunteering with, or associated with Riverview Church will not be held responsible for any piece of art that I choose to display in the gallery at Riverview Church. This includes any damage that may occur while art is being hung, taken down, and/or stored before being hung or while waiting for pick-up, or any work that may be damaged or stolen while on display. I understand that the gallery at Riverview Church is located in a common space that receives high traffic.

I agree to leave the above mentioned work(s) on display in the gallery until the end of the exhibition. I'm responsible for picking up my work at the conclusion of the exhibition.

I understand that Riverview Church is not responsible for facilitating sales of artwork and my personal contact information may be provided to those inquiring to purchase.
